THE MIST™

Clues and Hints

We hope you enjoy being lost in a different world, dazed, and maybe a bit confused. If you are too lost and need a bit of help, take a look inside—but just a peek!

Your feedback is important to us. Let us know what you think about this, or any of the other adventures, in our series of Angelsoft Interactive Fiction from Mindscape.

The point of the game:

What's the goal?

- » To find your son, Billy. You've been separated by this strange mist.

Where is he?

- » You will have to find him!

At the Supermarket:

Every time I walk out of the Supermarket, I die.

- » Maybe you should do something before you leave the Supermarket.

I can't find anything worthwhile in the Supermarket.

- » Find Ollie Weeks. He may be able to help you acquire a number of useful items.

But Ollie doesn't tell me anything!

- » He's obviously very upset. Maybe you should put him at ease.

I tried putting him at ease, but it didn't help.

- » Tell Ollie to RELAX.

OK, now what?

- » Try asking Ollie about a weapon of some sort.

I found some dead soldiers. What do I do with them?

- » ~~Examine~~ Examine the soldiers carefully. This may yield some interesting information.

Mrs. Carmody's followers keep throwing me out into the mist.

What can I do?

- » Mrs. Carmody is a lunatic to begin with, and the mist has unhinged her band of followers. Avoid staying around her for too long.

I shot Mrs. Carmody and her followers got me!

- » Maybe shooting Mrs. Carmody isn't such a good idea.

I talked to Mrs. Reppler, but she doesn't tell me anything.

- » She can give you some interesting information.

She won't answer my questions!

- » Remember, you are concerned about your son Billy. Maybe Mrs. Reppler and her husband can be of some help.

The Parking Lot:

The Bug keeps killing me!

- » Make sure that you are prepared before you leave the Supermarket.

I looked in the Supermarket, but I couldn't find anything to help me.

» There are two things that can be found in the Supermarket that will defeat the Bug.

I still don't get it!

» You can either shoot the Bug with the gun, or, since it is a slug-like creature, you can throw salt on it.

What salt?

» A full salt box can be found somewhere in the Supermarket.

I saw the salt box once, but when I came back, it was gone!

» Quite possible. Other characters can pick up objects along the way. So, if you see something of use, be sure to take it with you.

If somebody else has it, how do I tell if they have it?

» Ask them about it (nicely, of course). You might try to convince them to give it to you.

In Bug Blasters:

The spider kills me before I can do anything!

» Not true. You have enough time to pick up the proper object and use it to kill the spider.

I shot the spider, but it still killed me!

» Don't shoot the spider.

I sprayed the sprayer at the spider, but it still killed me!

» Don't spray the sprayer.

All that's left is spraying the Raid!

» That's right.

Out the back door of the Supermarket:

I can't find a key for the truck!

» It's a Supermarket truck; try talking to the Supermarket manager.

What's the dumpster for?

» Look inside of it.

The Hardware store:

I can't get into the Hardware store.

» You need a key.

Where can I find the key?

» Ask Mrs. Reppler.

Mrs. Reppler says she dropped the key! Now what?

» Try looking around all the locations on the way to the Hardware store.

I did that! I still can't find the key!

» The shiny key may have attracted one of the creatures from the Mist. Birds, for example, are notorious for picking up shiny objects.

OK, now what?

» Try killing the bird, then look around.

I can't get Mr. Reppler to tell me anything!

» That's because he's dead. Perhaps you should try playing Voodoo Island, where dead people do talk.

Around town:

Everytime I go to the jungle gym I get killed by the bugs!

» Maybe you should avoid that area.

The bird keeps killing me!

» Try using a weapon.

Every time I walk out of town, I die!

» Try driving the truck.

The dragonfly keeps getting me.

» Use a weapon to kill it.

I shot at the Dragonfly, but I missed!

» You were probably nervous. Try shooting it again.

At the fence:

Every time I touch the fence, I die!

» You shouldn't be touching the fence.

I tried to shut the power off at the power station, but I still get killed!

» The CMP controls the municipal power. The electric fence is part of the Arrowhead Project; it has it's own power source.

But I can't get beyond the fence!

» Yes you can. But, you can't go over or through it.

How I else can I get by the fence?

» Try digging a hole.

I tried to dig a hole, but the ground was too muddy.

» Try using something other than your hands.

I tried digging under the fence with the shovel, but it didn't work.

» Try "Dig a hole with the shovel."

The Centipede:

How do I get past the Centipede?

» Try using a weapon.

I shot it, but it didn't die!

» It's big. Really big. Shooting it once may not be enough.

In the Arrowhead Project:

I went into the lab, and when I came out, I passed out and lost the game.

» You went through the airlock unprotected.

So?

» This is a bacterial research lab. You'll need some kind of protective covering to make it through safely.

I don't know where to look!

» Try searching the other offices at the project.

I can't get the pesticide into the sprayer!

» First, you have to empty the contents of the sprayer.

How do I do that?

» Like all liquids, the insecticide can be poured out of the sprayer.

I did that, but I still can't pour the pesticide into the sprayer.

» Once you have poured the insecticide out, you can then pour the pesticide into the sprayer.

The Giant Thing:

I can't get past the Giant Thing!

» You don't have a chance unless you've been to the Arrowhead Project, and picked up the necessary equipment.

I've been there, and still can't get past the Giant Thing!

» You'll need to use something different to get past this creature.

Like what?

» Like something other than the gun (or the broom for that matter).

I tried the insecticide, but that didn't work!

» Try the pesticide.

How do I do that?

» Try spraying the Giant Thing with the pesticide.

I did that, but all that happened was that the babies fell off.

» This is a GIANT Thing. Try spraying it more than once.
